

When I was a child I was sexually abused. I lost my identity; lived in hate, guilt, shame and un-forgiveness until I gave my heart to the Lord in 1996 and received miraculous deliverance---Hallelujah! I came to the Lord a wretch! I was like the debtor in Jesus' parable that was forgiven the greater debt in Luke 7:40-50. A creditor cancels the debts of two debtors, and the one with the larger debt loves the creditor more. I felt Jesus was conveying that the sinful woman at His feet loved Him more than his host, a Pharisee, because the Pharisee felt he had fewer sins and therefore had been forgiven less, but the woman knew she had many sins and was totally forgiven. The creditor forgave both debtors, so Jesus asked Simon which debtor would love the creditor more, and Simon replied, "I suppose the one who had the bigger debt forgiven." Well, my sins, which were many, are forgiven, and I love Jesus very, very much!

Although I had lesbian desires, I never experienced any lesbian relationships, but the desire was there and I was disgusted with the very thought. I knew Jesus could deliver me so I began praying to God saying "Daddy, You are my deliverer and only You can set me free from this unnatural, shameful desire that torments my soul. I never moved from praying and believing that my Lord would deliver me, and I knew that one day I'd awaken free! I envisioned myself completely free from lesbian desires; I saw myself free even before I received deliverance, and I believed John

8:36 "Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed." I rejoiced! I waited expectantly on God. One evening I was in prayer asking the Lord to help me forgive my molester, and to deliver me from the bondage because I knew that only He could, and I was ready. My husband is my best friend/prayer partner and had been praying and agreeing with me. I went to sleep that night and dreamt that I was standing over the sink throwing up worms. The Lord revealed to me in the dream that the unnatural desires that had tortured me, would soon be gone/destroyed---Hallelujah! When I awoke, I joyfully pondered that dream expecting a powerful move of God in my life. These miraculous supernatural things followed: A few nights later I went to sleep and awoke to (God) Holy Spirit's presence filling my room with His power & love! As I stood in complete amazement, God touched me and said "You're free" and immediately a mist that was before my eyes cleared up and the Lord filled my lips with laughter (Psalm 126:2). I had the most wonderful communion with the Lord all morning---Hallelujah! I laughed, I cried and I was filled overflowing!! God instantaneously destroyed the yoke of bondage and set me free from those filthy lesbian desires, unnatural fantasies, hate, un-forgiveness, shame and I was made completely whole---all glory to Lord Jesus! I will serve Him forever!!!! This testimony is not about me, but totally about Jesus, what He's done, and what He can & will do for all of us. I struggled for years with sharing this testimony because I was ashamed of the molestation, living with sinful lesbian desires, hate, un-forgiveness, and guilt. God gave me a dream one night of meeting a lady that had typed her testimony on paper, printed it, and she was passing it out to people on the street like a tract. When I awoke from the dream, the Lord told me to do the same and boldly share my testimony with others and glorify Him! I shall not be ashamed of my deliverance, as I was ashamed in bondage, and I shall proclaim God's glory! For everything comes from Him and exists by His power and is intended for His glory. All glory to Him forever Amen (Romans 11:36). Thank You Daddy God for saving me and setting me free! Glory hallelujah I'm free! My family and I witness and share the Gospel with others everywhere we go, and we intercede for the lost not wanting anyone to perish. Friend, God will save and set you free also; He loves you! Hey drug-addict, alcoholic, homosexual, bisexual, transsexual, child molester, rapist, thief, adulterer, liar, Satanist, murderer, fornicator, nice person without Christ...

Jesus saves and DESTROYS the power of sin over you; the desire will be DESTROYED! I ask you to trust Him and believe. Luke 1:37 says "With God nothing shall be impossible."

Love in Christ, Tony
